Notice

You have been sued. The court may enter judgment against you without further notice unless you respond. Read the information below.

If you want to defend this lawsuit, you must file a written response (Response to the Petition or appropriate Rule 502 I.R.F.L.P. Motion) to the Amended Petition at the Clerk of the District Court's office at: (mailing address, physical address if different, and telephone number of the court): _____

within 14 days from now or within the original 21 days from the service of the Summons, whichever is longer.

If you do not file a Response or appropriate Motion the court may enter a judgment against you without further notice. A letter to the Judge is not an appropriate written response.

The written response must comply with Rule 207 and other Idaho Rules of Family Law Procedure and include: your name, mailing address and telephone number; or your attorney's name, mailing address and telephone number; and the title and number of this case.

If your written response is a Response to the Petition, it must state the things you agree with and those you disagree with that are in the Amended Petition. You must also state any defenses you have.

You must mail or deliver a copy of your response to the Petitioner or Petitioner's attorney (at the address listed above), and prove that you did.

To determine whether you must pay a filing fee with your response, contact the Clerk of the District Court.

If you are considering talking to an attorney, you should do so quickly to protect your legal rights.
