

👉 NOTICE: Regarding Availability of Criminal Forms 👉

Court Assistance Offices and this Website are allowed to distribute to the public only those forms approved or allowed under the Idaho Supreme Court's Form Development Policy. As of this date, no forms for use in criminal proceedings have been approved other than those used to set aside a civil infraction default judgment, to request the modification or termination of a criminal no contact order, or to file an objection to the interception of a tax refund to pay debts owed to the courts.

We suggest you seek the assistance of an attorney, or if you can demonstrate you are indigent and unable to afford an attorney, you may want to contact the court in which the criminal case is pending to see if you qualify for a court appointed attorney.
